From Father Jacob

Merry Christmas!

I hope you and your families are all having a joyous and very Merry Christmas. We get to celebrate the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh to save us men and women from Christmas Day until Epiphany on January 4th this year, and an extra week of Christmas season until the Baptism of the Lord on January 11th. I hope to sing every carol, eat every cookie, light every tree, and ask every blessing from the Lord during that time, and I hope you will too!

The Christmas Season

Our Christmas season is full of special celebrations! This Sunday during “the Octave” of Christmas (the week after Christmas day) is dedicated to the Holy Family. On January 1st we close out the week of Christmas festivities with the feast of Mary, the Mother of God. But the Christmas season continues on for two more weeks! The next Sunday here in America we celebrate Epiphany (which in the rest of the world is on January 6th, 12 days after Christmas day—hence the song). The Sunday after that we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, which is the end of the Christmas season.

Most of us will go back to our ordinary schedules long before January 11th, but I hope you’ll continue to celebrate in at least some way the very great good news that, in Jesus Christ, God came to rescue us as Emmanuel-God with us!

Holy Family, holy families

Sometimes the Holy Family can strike us as unapproachable. After all, two of its members (Jesus and Mary) are untouched by any stain of sin, and the other (Joseph) never says a word in all of Scripture. It can seem at first blush like that family is nothing like my family: maybe they are nice to pray to, and certainly they look great in a nativity set, but they’re not very relevant to me and my home. But this is not so! Let’s understand what really made the Holy Family to be holy.

The Holy Family is holy because it was a family gathered around Jesus.

Being a family gathered around Jesus is not something distant or remote. That is something your family can have as well, and to the extent that we do that, each of our families will also be holy. It is Jesus that makes holiness, after all.

How can our family have Jesus at the center?

Lots of ways! A first and most important step to help us have Jesus at the center of our families is to pray together.

That could look like learning prayers with the little ones before bed, or sharing blessings and prayer intentions every evening or every week with older kids. Maybe it looks like praying the rosary together, or having a holy hour or daily Mass scheduled as a couple once a week.

This week Tom Schmitt will present at Masses about a devotion our parish has agreed to promote of prayer to the Holy Family specifically for the family: for our individual families, for our parish and community, and for all families. What a beautiful opportunity to entrust our families to the Holy Family, and to grow as a family by praying together! I hope you’ll take a holy card home with you and join me in praying for families everywhere.

The World According to Bob

- What did the three wise men say after they offered their gifts of gold and frankincense? "But wait, there's myrrh!"
- You can turn any sofa into a sofa bed by telling your wife to calm down.
- And the Lord said unto John, come forth, and ye shall receive eternal life. But John came 5th and got a toaster.

FULLY ALIVE

YOUTH GROUP

INVITES ALL YOUNG DISCIPLES GRADES 9-12 TO OUR RETREAT

Come and find your identity in Christ

Sin separates us from God's love, distorting our understanding of our identity as His beloved children. Through baptism and the Holy Spirit dwelling in us, we are freed from our slavery to sin. This gives us the freedom to know, love, and serve God in this life and to remain with Him forever in Heaven.
